Purely Business!

The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "quotations" free any more than a merchant can take over his customer from gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a legitimate business concern. Its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

We Have!

Always contended for and maintain it is a fact that there is a higher order of intelligence evinced in the business of general merchandise by the people in this and nearby counties than most anywhere else. You will find few persons who do their shopping in Maysville who believe that $4.98 will buy a $12 suit of clothes. Our many years experience goes to show that people want good goods, and for which they are willing to pay a fair price. Our 1908 spring business proves that the higher the class of goods the readier they sell. Our beautiful Black and Blue Serge Suits (we sell them at $12) have bonded into wonderful great favor with our good customers. We have a beautiful line of them. The weather is getting right for our

BATTLE RESUMED.

Firing Renewed by the Spaniards on the Camps of the Marines at Guantanamo.

OUR MEN RETURNED IT PROMPTLY.

Thirteen Rifles and a Three-Inch Field Gun Was Used and the Spaniards Retired.

The Missing Pickets, After Eighteen Hours' Duty, Return to Camp and Report That the Spaniards Had Retired.

OFF UNITED STATES CAMP GUANTANAMO BAY, Sunday, June 12, noon. By Kingston, Jamaica, June 14.—When the dispatch boat Dauntless left Guantanamo Bay early Monday morning, after the 13 hours skirmish between the United States marines, under Lieut. Col. R. W. Huntington and the Spanish guerrilla and regulars, it was expected that the fighting would be renewed. The Maribhead was land-ineffectively and nothing had been heard from the advance pickets under Lieut. Wendell C. Neville and Lieut. Melville J. Shaw.

At 9 o'clock the firing was again renewed by the Spaniards, who appeared off the camp on the edge of a small island, about a mile to the northeast. It was promptly returned by 13 rifles and a three-inch field gun and in a short time all signs of the enemy had disappeared. Col. Huntington sent to the landing for a second three-inch gun, which was dragged up the hill and placed in position at the summit. The skirmish lines thrown around the camp kept up a continuous sniping, but with not much result to show for it. Meanwhile the Maribhead left the harbor and threw a few shells into the woods.

To the great delight of marines in camp, Lieut. Neville and Shaw, with 80 men of Company D, returned in good shape but much exhausted by 18 hours of picket duty. One man, Serg. Smith, of Company K, had been shot through the abdomen and instantly killed. For most of the day and night Lieut. Neville and Lieut. Shaw had been surrounded by a much superior force, but most of the officers behaved splendidly and, although the firing of the Spaniards was constant and heavy, Lieut. Neville's detachment, by its own initiative, inflicting much damage that was not stated. At least five Spaniards are known to have been killed, and as Lieut. Neville's men kept up a steady fire throughout the night and morning, it is believed that the Spanish casualties were heavy.

The battle ship Texas arrived Monday morning and sent 100 men, 100 rifles and two automatic Colt guns as reinforcements. The Maribhead also sent an antiaircraft detachment. Private Bartholomew McGowan, of Company D, will have his arm amputated will be necessary. The Maribhead's pilot, who was shot through the leg while guiding the cruiser out of the harbor Monday morning, holds the rank of colonel in the Cuban service.
